
A Current situation

February 24th, Putin declared a “special military operation” in Ukraine, in other words - launched a devastating attack on Ukraine, a European democracy of 44 million people. Now, Europe is witnessing its first major war in decades, while Ukrainians alone by themselves are fighting for the democratic world as we know it.

B Problem

Russia's invasion of Ukraine is changing the global order forever but people, especially in the Western world, don't seem to care enough.

The United States, the European Union, and others have condemned Russia's aggression and begun issuing economic sanctions against Russia, however, this doesn't stop an evil regime. Not only world leaders but every single one of us owes Ukrainians standing up & speaking up for them while they are fighting for the world as we know it.

C Brief

It is said that during the war every single person has to fight evil with the weapon that they know best.

The situation that we are facing now is not only a military conflict but also information warfare, so we invite the world's creative community to take their biggest weapon - creativity & show the real face of this disastrous invasion for the world to see.

We kindly ask you to submit illustrations and other artworks portraying the current situation. We will collect them & keep putting them on the open online platform, so people and media outlets all around the world can use them for free in case of need to illustrate what is happening in Ukraine.
